Village Has New Idea for Fire Station

Village officials had been thinking of constructing a new safety building about two blocks west of Main St., on Orchard St., just east of the shopping plaza.

Now they feel they have a better idea. That is, to put the building east of Main St., by extending Orchard St. to the east.

This would require knocking down the old Chevrolet building, owned by John Teresi and now occupied by Antioch Supply Inc., at 865 Main St.

It would have to happen within the next few years because the floor in the present fire station isn't safe. There are fears that someday the fire trucks are going to fall through and land in the basement.

A NEW safety building probably would include fire and police stations, rescue squad headquarters and perhaps village offices.

Mayor Robert C. Wilton and the six village trustees are thinking of a spot east of Main St., and that would require extending Orchard St. to the east.

Vandals Open Hydrants, Put Antioch in Danger

Vandals opened five fire hydrants in various sections of the village around midnight last Friday and completely drained Antioch's water system.

Fire Chief Charles (Tod) Maplethorpe, in a letter to the mayor and board of trustees, said:

"During this same period vandals destroyed the meter and meter box on the Depot St. lift station, putting it out of operation.

"These acts could have proven disastrous to the citizens of the village. This heavy load could have caused damage to the wells, pumping equipment and the water system in general. With little or no pressure in the mains contamination is always possible. The fire department would have been seriously hampered in its ability to fight fires. The automatic fire protection systems in the schools, businesses and factories were inoperative."

The hydrants were located on Anita Ave., Corona Ave., Hillside and Alima Terrace.

The hydrants were closed at approximately 1:20 a.m., Maplethorpe said. It took the next six hours of pumping at a rate of 1,600 gallons per minute to bring the water to the minimum level normally kept in the towers. It took an additional seven hours with wells No. 2 and 3 producing water to fill the towers.

"From a fire protection standpoint we can be thankful we escaped a major fire during this period," the chief said.

"Had there been a fire there would not have been enough water to supply our fire engines until possible valving of the

Weeds on Your Lot? Better Cut 'em Now

Property owners in the village of Antioch who haven't been cutting their weeds have a one-week deadline.

If it isn't done by Wednesday, June 16, the village will begin its annual weed-cutting program and charge the property owners $15 per lot.

The decision was made at Monday night's village board meeting.

Falls From Car, Girl Injured

A 17-year-old Antioch girl, Melody Sweatman of 1244 Main St., was injured at about 10 p.m. Monday when she fell out of a car as it was making a turn on Hy. 83, north of Antioch near the state line.

Her companions drove her to the police station and the Antioch Rescue Squad rushed her to Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan.

Miss Sweatman's legs were severely bruised and the nursing supervisor at the hospital said she also was being admitted for X-rays of her chest, skull, pelvic and hips.

The driver of the car told police she apparently leaned against the passenger-side door, which opened when he made the turn.

God has given us two ears and one mouth so that we can listen twice as much as we speak.

A 2-CAR GARAGE on Antioch's northside was engulfed in flames at 4:30 p.m. last Wednesday and Antioch firemen were unable to keep the structure from being completely destroyed. The garage was behind the residence of Mrs. Theresa Murphy, 642 W. North Ave., and near the Jensen Park tennis courts. Police said it was determined that a young boy playing with matches started the fire. (Paul Maplethorpe photo.)

PM&L Play Shows Pain of Royalty

By JERRY PFARR

If you think you have family problems, you should have spent Christmas of 1183 with King Henry II of England and his queen, Eleanor.

A look at the mess they made of their lives was offered last Saturday when "The Lion in Winter" opened in Antioch at the PM&L Theatre.

Henry, Eleanor and their three sons were at each other's throats, to say the least, yet the play provided an excellent evening of entertainment.

It will be given again this Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and again on Friday and Saturday, June 18-19.

We don't think you should miss it. It's a delightful diversion and even worth skipping Mary Tyler Moore and Bob Newhart for.

KEEP READING and we'll tell you about the fine humor and presentation, but first we must recommend that you call 395-3055 for reservations for one of the remaining performances. Tickets, $3 for adults and $1 for students, might be available at the door, but to be safe you should get reservations.

The cozy PM&L Theatre at 877 Main St. was only three-fourths full on opening night, but "The Lion in Winter" deserved more. When word gets around, it might be more packed on the next two weekends.

There isn't a weak link in the cast of seven. Directed by Tessa Smith, an accomplished actress from England, opening night went without a flaw.

HENRY, PLAYED by Tom Hausman, has just turned 50 and, in his time, that was old. The play is historically accurate and Henry did die six years later. Some say from a broken heart when he discovered his favorite son, John, was in secret alliance against him.

John, played here by Mark Kettner, was Henry's choice for the crown.

Eleanor's choice was the angry Richard the Lion-Hearted, the oldest son, played by John Davis.

The middle son, Geoffrey, is played by Bob Junius, the talented young actor who starred a year ago in "Butterflies Are Free." Geoffrey hasn't a chance for the crown, but is the brains of the family and the leader in the plotting and abuse against his parents, the king and queen.

Eleanor is played by Pat Jamison, outstanding here recently in "Fiddler on the Roof" and a former Broadway understudy of Kay Medford, Nanette Fabray and Imogene Coca. She is a polished actress.

Rounding out the cast are Martha Davis, as Henry's 23-year-old mistress, "all honey and molasses," as he says in the play; and Bruce Burger as young King Phillip of France. Bruce's versatile voice and face were enjoyed by PM&L crowds this year in the melodrama, "Dirty Work at the Crossroads."

It's a fine cast and you will enjoy each of the seven individually as well as their collective repartee.

HENRY USUALLY keeps Queen Eleanor prisoner in a castle in England but allows her to appear and "smile" at state occasions.

They haven't forgotten the love they shared in their youth and are kind in their sarcasm.

"I still adore you," she says.

"Of all the lies, that's the most terrible," he rants.

"I know," she replies, "that's why I saved it up for now."

WHEN HENRY discovers his sons are thinking of attacking him with daggers, he almost slays them with his huge sword, but crumbles weeping, unable to do it.

Queen Eleanor shakes her head and raises her eyebrows. "You spare the rod and you'll spoil those boys," she quips.

In a moment of complete hatred between king, queen and their three sons, she breaks up the audience with the aside:

"Well, what family doesn't have its ups and downs?"

Eleanor tries to "reach" her sons but never quite succeeds and indicts royalty with the remark:

"We breed war. We carry it around inside us like sickness. Oh, my sons, can't we love each other just a little? We could change the world."

THE PLAY by James Goldman is extremely well-written and full of the vengeance and hurt that exists in a royal family whose members needed love but went 31 years without it. The writing is so good that it sometimes reminds you of Shakespeare except, unlike Shakespeare, you get the meaning the first time you hear it. All of the lines are clear, a credit to the cast, and the many barbs are sharply delivered, like darts.

"You know, Henry," says Eleanor, "I have a confession to make. I don't very much care for our children."

The plays opens with a strong scene between the 50-year-old king and his 23-year-old mistress, Tom Hausman and Martha Davis are at their best immediately and it whets the audience's appetite for the two hours that follow.

Miss Davis, as Alais, is the only character in the play who feels that "the need for loving never stops."

Then Pat Jamison comes on stage with her strength.

"How dear of you to let me out of jail," she says to the king.

"It's only for the holidays," he grins. "Come, we have a hundred barons waiting, and we should look the loving couple."

WITH ITS small and strong cast, "Lion in the Winter" is suited to the intimacy of the PM&L Theatre. The technical crew has done a fine job. Thanks to Deane Jones, the costumes are bright and regal. Delores Kratz is to be praised for the decor, Michael Kratz for the effective lighting, and Pat and Bill Sereshon for the innovative set design that calls for nine scene changes.

The play ends with Henry wanting none of his sons to replace him as king and wishing he could live forever.

But we looked it up in our Funk & Wagnall's and he did die six years later, with John, Richard and King Phillip of France at war against him.

Richard the Lion-Hearted succeeded to the throne but after 10 years as king was killed by a crossbow at the age of 42.

John, a weak teen-ager in "The Lion in Winter," succeeded Richard, became the signer of the Magna Carta, and was king for 17 years until he died in the year 1216, at 49.

Those weren't exactly the good old days.

Girl Scouts Offering Day Camps

"It isn't too late to enroll your daughter in summer day camp," said Catherine Halama, director of Lakeview Girl Scout Council's day camp.

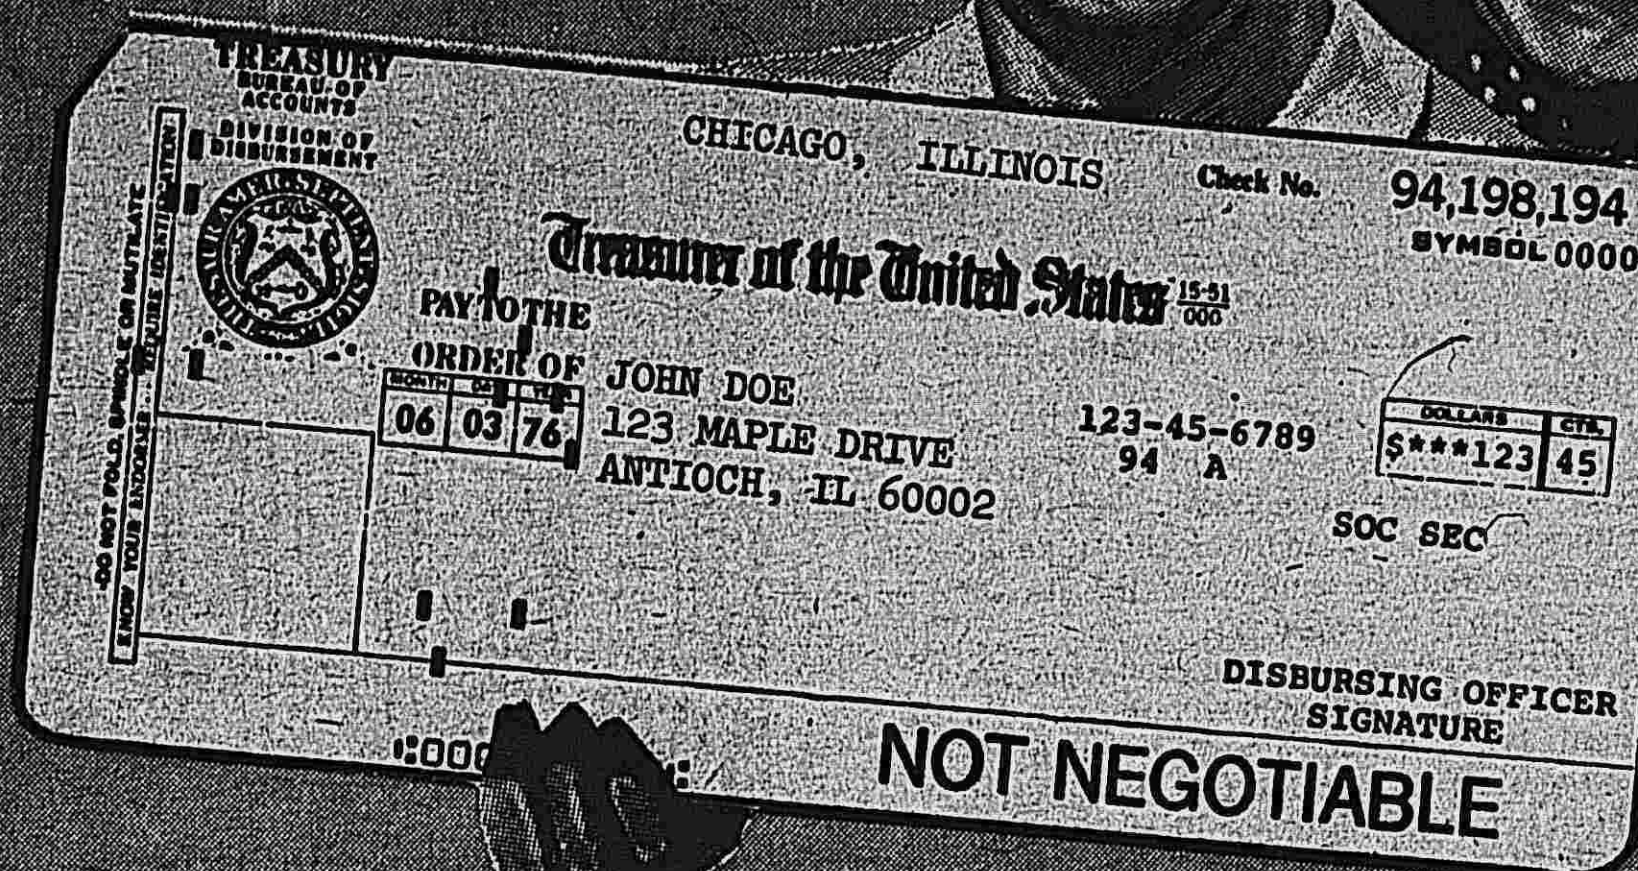

The four one-week sessions start July 12 at Camp Morrison, near Lake Villa.

"All girls entering first grade and up, Scouts and non-Scouts are welcome. For the second year we will offer day camp to hearing-impaired girls," Miss Halama said.

The camp fee includes transportation, a camp shirt, all program activities, an optional overnight, and some meals. There are 90 scheduled bus stops within the council area.

Activities include archery, dramatics and swimming. For more information, call the Lakeview Girl Scout Council, 662-5725.

The Swine Flu Threat

President Gerald Ford has asked Congress for an appropriation for 220 million doses of vaccine to immunize every United States citizen against Swine Flu.

What is Swine Flu, and why is everyone so concerned about it?

In February of this year, the Swine Flu virus was identified as the cause of an outbreak of influenza at Ft. Dix, N.J. One young soldier died in this outbreak.

New Jersey health officials sounded the alarm after identifying the virus, because of indirect evidence that this virus may be similar to the one which caused the world-wide flu epidemic, or pandemic, of 1918-19. In that epidemic, more than half-a-million Americans died of the flu and its complications.

FOLLOWING THAT pandemic, the number of cases of Swine Flu steadily declined each year. Since the early 1930's, only scattered cases of this disease have been seen, and only in instances where the patient had had direct contact with hogs. Because of the rarity of the disease since the 30's, very few Americans have had an opportunity to develop any natural immunity to Swine Flu. Therefore, the great majority of people in the United States are susceptible to the virus.

Because it seemed the disease could only be transmitted from swine to person, health officials were not disturbed by the large number of susceptible Americans ... until they investigated the outbreak at Ft. Dix. In that incident, public health officials discovered that, in some cases, the disease was transmitted from person to person.

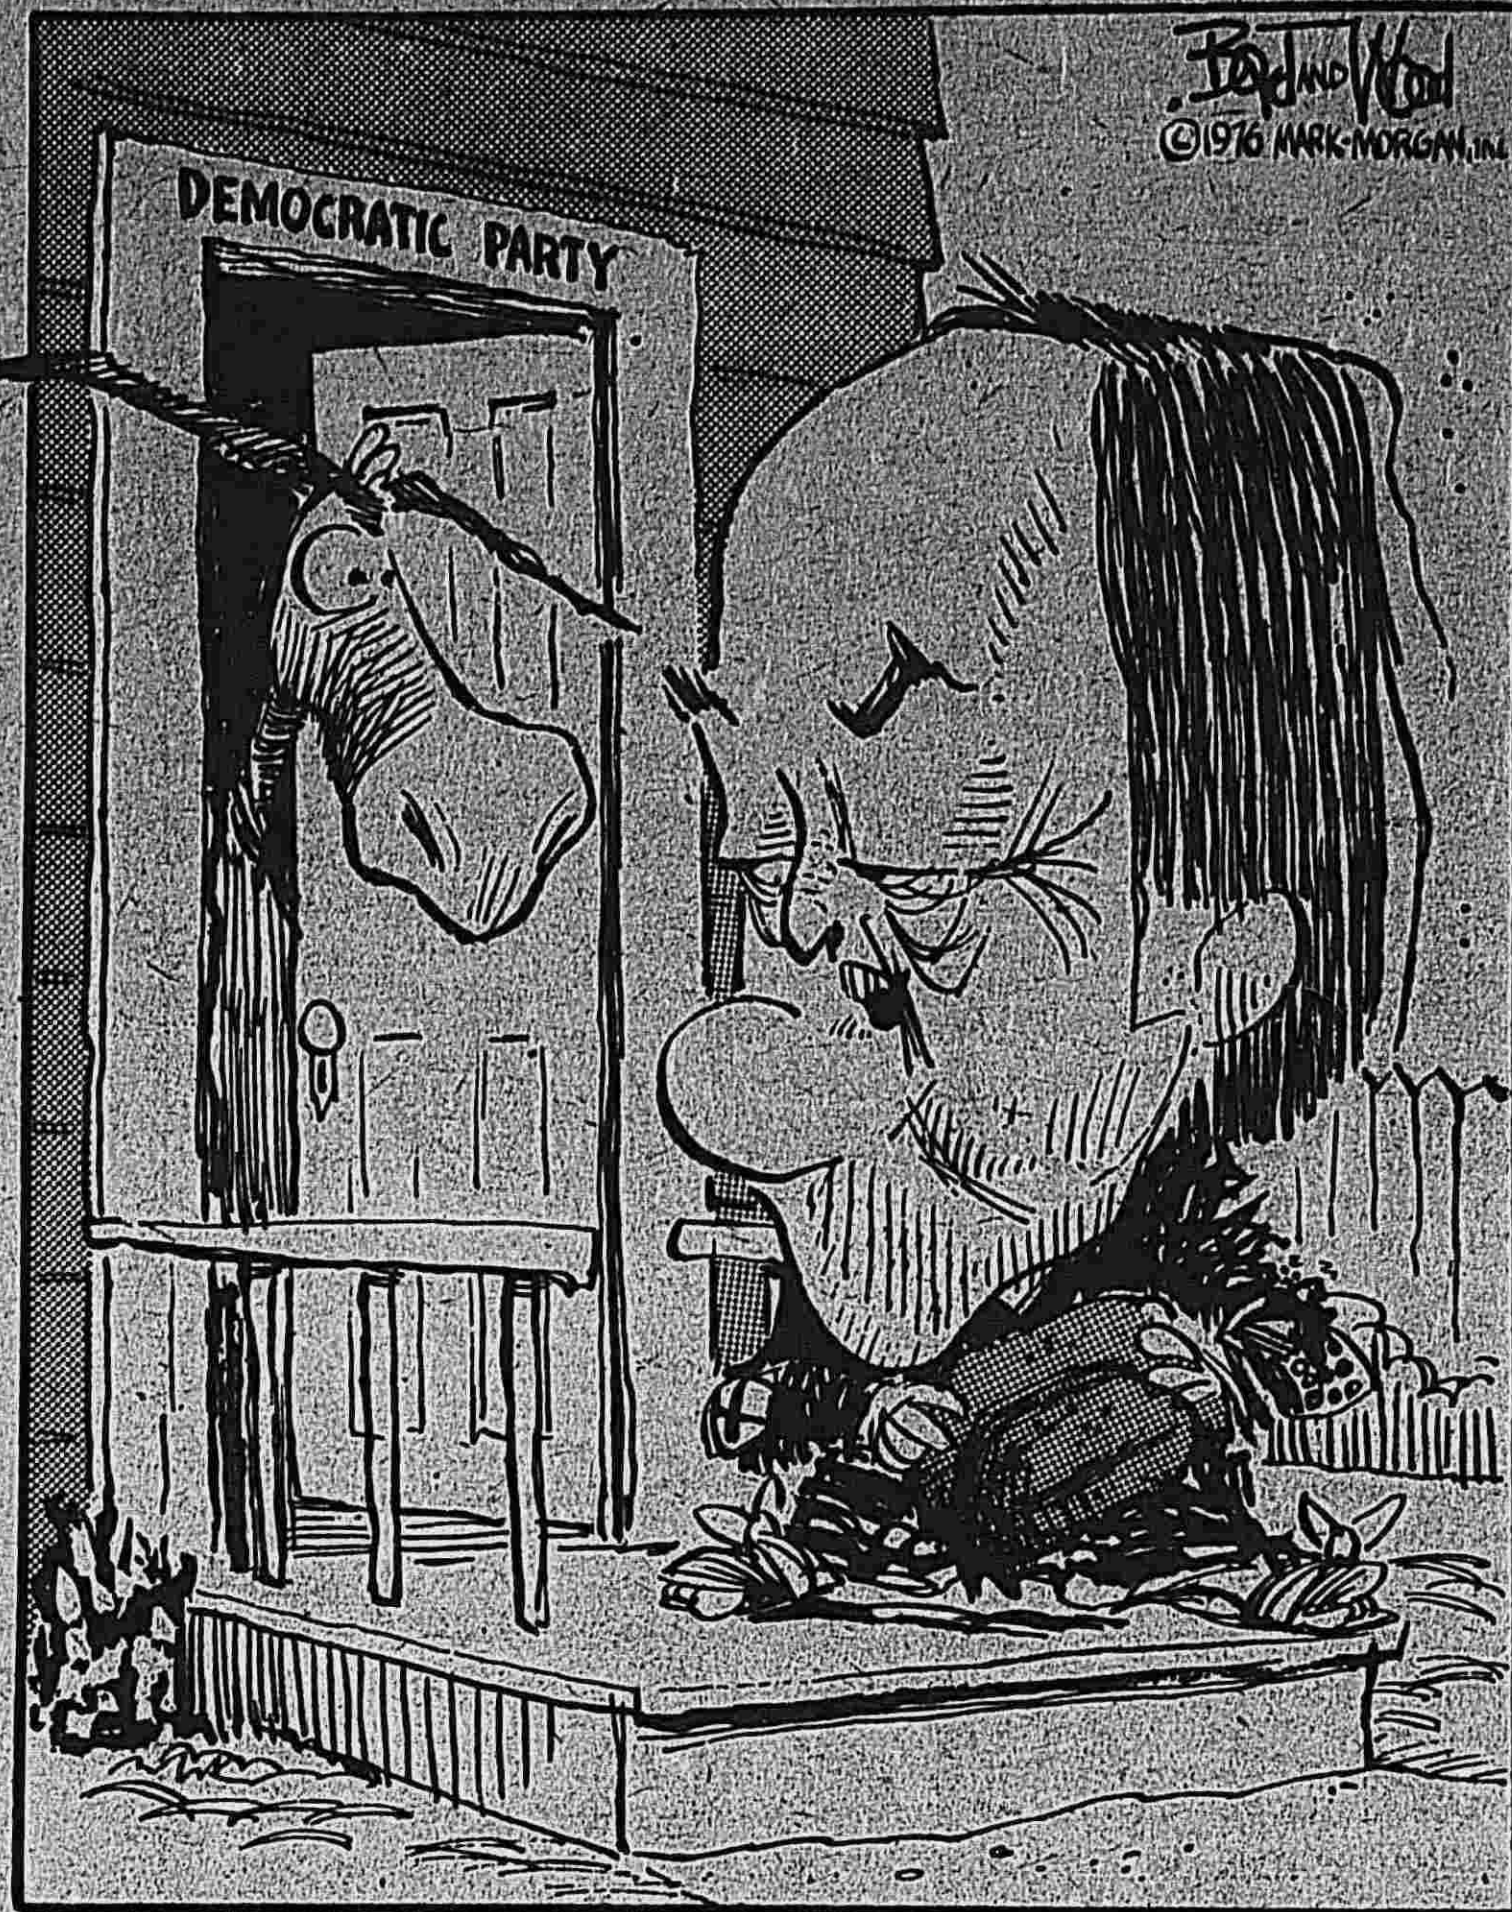

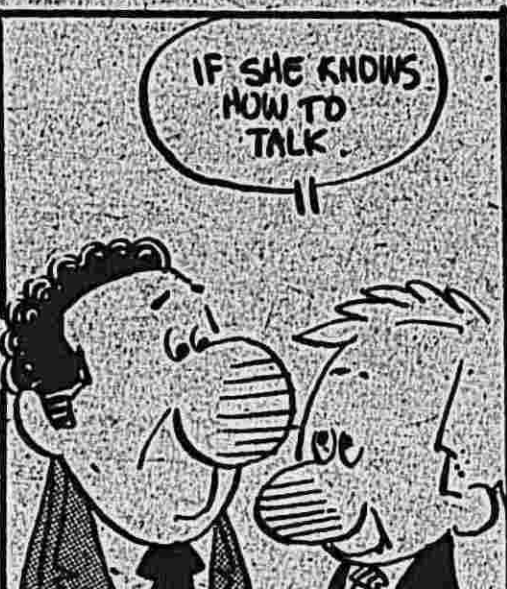

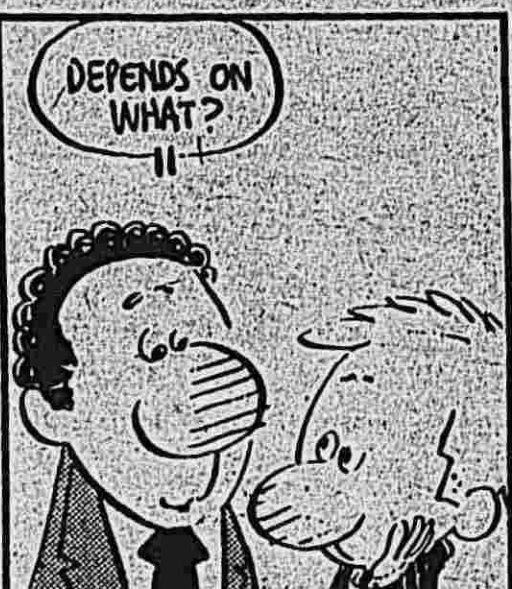

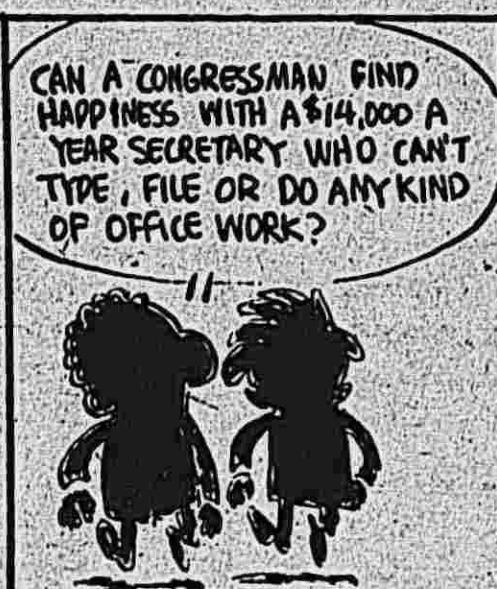

If the Swine Flu virus is now capable of person-to-person transmission the United States could approach the next flu season, which normally begins in mid-December, with more than 200 million susceptible people. Most health experts agree, however, that we are not facing a repetition of the high death rate experienced in 1918-1919, due to modern anti-biotics which are effective in the treatment of pneumonia and other secondary infections associated with the flu virus. Although the flu virus itself can cause death directly, a large percentage of those who died in 1918, died from pneumonia or other complications.

IF A MASS immunization program is not conducted, and a nation-wide epidemic occurs next winter, it could result in thousands of deaths, millions of cases of pneumonia and other complications and cost the American people billions of dollars in medical expenses and lost wages.

For these reasons, Illinois public health officials are

Rep. McClory Suggests We Buy Booklet

Dear Editor:

An original copy of the Magna Carta, loaned to the United States for one year as a Bicentennial tribute from Great Britain, is a document of extraordinary significance to every American. Without it, there could have been no Declaration of Independence, no Constitution, no Bill of Rights.

Nations are not born into a void. Their founders build on what they know. What the men who created America knew was English law based on the Magna Carta, or Great Charter.

A magnificent 61-page booklet is available explaining how it came into being. "Magna Carta and the Tradition of Liberty" details a drama of kings and lords, conquest and cruelty, human frailty and lust for power that not even a Shakespeare could invent.

Formalized in June, 1215, in a meadow alongside the Thames not far from Windsor Castle, the Magna Carta is the bedrock of the freedoms that ultimately flowered into an experiment in government called the United States of America.

As much as I would wish to, it is not possible for me to send this beautifully illustrated booklet free of charge to every constituent who desires one. But it is available for $2, including postage, from the U.S. Capitol Historical Society, 200 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington, D.C., 20515.

I urge your readers to send for one. It helps us all understand why we are what we are and how that ultimate gift of liberty came by chance to be ours.

Americans Must Undergo Difficulties, Discomforts

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

If ever there was a time for the advocates of the economy and constitutional government to do what they can to help avert total disaster, this is it.

And if ever there was a time for publicly identifying the pockets of power in the bureaucracy, with their accompanying threat to individual freedom, this is it.

The economic situation facing the United States is just short of desperate and one of the things the nation needs most is the help and advice of those in Congress and in government who have spent years fighting for balanced budgets, reduced government spending, payments on the national debt, and a tough-minded policy toward those sweet-sounding but expensive programs of social engineering.

WE ALSO need the help of like-minded people in electing Congresses with the courage to act in the interests of all Americans.

Girl Scout Council Picks New Officers

Election of new officers and board members took place at Lakeview Girl Scout Council's annual meeting.

Newly elected as officers for the next three years are: Linda Molitor, Round Lake, president; Alice Byers, Waukegan, vice-president; Frank Shipton, Waukegan, vice-president; Dolores Condon, Libertyville, vice-president; Irene West, North Chicago, secretary; and Norma Merrell, Wildwood, treasurer.

Elected as members-at-large to terms expiring in 1979 are:

Dr. Robert Abbe, Great Lakes; Joyce Dominick, Waukegan; Ruth Hughes, Zion; Leonard Latz, Waukegan; Lavonne Pelozo, Waukegan and Harlan Ware, Antioch.

Elected to the council nominating committee are: Birgit Gibson, Antioch, and Ella Rostron, Waukegan.

Those receiving awards recognizing their past service to the council are: Adeline Geokaris, Joan Meginniss, Preston Reckers of Antioch, Lois Ryan, Donald Noren and Mary Fran Streed.

OUTGOING PRESIDENT of Lakeview Girl Scout Council, Joan Meginniss, presents a certificate of appreciation to Preston J. Reckers, vice president of the State Bank of Antioch, for his many past services and completion of two 3-year terms as a council board member. Mr. Harlan Ware (right) principal of Antioch Lower Grade School, is the newly-inducted board member now serving the Lakeview Council in the Antioch area.

Deputy From Antioch Dies In Car Crash

A 28-year-old Antioch man, Daniel J. Maloney, died early Sunday when his car left the road on Rt. 132, west of Lindenhurst.

Maloney, a Lake County deputy sheriff, reportedly was headed for his home at 293 Joanna Ct.

He was alone in the car when it left the pavement and traveled 180 feet on the north shoulder of the road.

Deputies covering the accident said Maloney's car veered back on the pavement and then skidded broadside, crossing Rt. 132, hitting a highway sign and then slamming into a tree.

Maloney was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Therese hospital in Waukegan.

He had been a deputy sheriff since August of 1972. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. today (Wednesday) at St. Peter's church. His parents are Frank and Loretta Maloney of Antioch.

Obituary information appears elsewhere in today's paper.

system could be accomplished to route the water from the wells to the area of need, and even with this we would be able to supply only one fire engine. It would also have been necessary to institute a mutual aid tanker operation to shuttle water from a nearby lake. The automatic fire protection systems in the schools, businesses, and factories were useless. During this period the citizens of the village had only minimal protection of life and property.

Maplethorpe said the cost to the village was extensive, including 750,000 gallons of water, overtime pay for public works employees, cost of repairs to the Depot St. lift station, numerous calls for rusty water and complaints from water-cooled equipment users.

"I feel we should proceed with the automatic monitoring system as suggested by the village engineer. If this system had been in operation, notification would have been made when the towers reached a pre-determined low level," the fire chief said.

Trustee William H. Seemann read the letter at Monday night's village board meeting and said Maplethorpe is hoping police will try to find the vandals and take proper action.

Deputy From Antioch Dies In Car Crash

A 28-year-old Antioch man, Daniel J. Maloney, died early Sunday when his car left the road on Rt. 132, west of Lindenhurst.

Maloney, a Lake County deputy sheriff, reportedly was headed for his home at 293 Joanna Ct.

He was alone in the car when it left the pavement and traveled 180 feet on the north shoulder of the road.

Deputies covering the accident said Maloney's car veered back on the pavement and then skidded broadside, crossing Rt. 132, hitting a highway sign and then slamming into a tree.

Maloney was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Therese hospital in Waukegan.

He had been a deputy sheriff since August of 1972. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. today (Wednesday) at St. Peter's church. His parents are Frank and Loretta Maloney of Antioch.

Obituary information appears elsewhere in today's paper.

system could be accomplished to route the water from the wells to the area of need, and even with this we would be able to supply only one fire engine. It would also have been necessary to institute a mutual aid tanker operation to shuttle water from a nearby lake. The automatic fire protection systems in the schools, businesses, and factories were useless. During this period the citizens of the village had only minimal protection of life and property."

Maplethorpe said the cost to the village was extensive, including 750,000 gallons of water, overtime pay for public works employees, cost of repairs to the Depot St. lift station, numerous calls for rusty water and complaints from water-cooled equipment users.

"I feel we should proceed with the automatic monitoring system as suggested by the village engineer. If this system had been in operation, notification would have been made when the towers reached a pre-determined low level," the fire chief said.

Trustee William H. Seemann read the letter at Monday night's village board meeting and said Maplethorpe is hoping police will try to find the vandals and take proper action.

The Time Machine

70 YEARS AGO: JUNE 7, 1906

A skein of mystery interwoven with love and pathos surrounds the disappearance of 15-year-old Carrie Sivers of this village. Her lover, better known among his associates as "Babe Soules," claims to know very little concerning her whereabouts and evinces no desire to tell what he does know.

50 YEARS AGO: JUNE 10, 1926

Bert Shackleford, who was taken to the Allendale school at Lake Villa back in 1906, then a wistful lad of 8 years and apparently left without father or mother, last week was swept into his father's arms after an absence of 24 years and was informed that he is the recipient of a $500,000 bequest from his grandmother, who died in 1917 in Indiana.

According to Mrs. Bradley, wife of the head master at Allendale, the Shackleford boy was left at the school without a cent of support. He was reared and trained in farming until he was a young man. Then he went to fight the world for himself and in the few years since he left the parental roof of Allendale, his training has helped him to make a success of farming near Rockford where he married and settled down.

Antioch has had its first experience for the summer with the automobile criminals. The first car to be missing was a Ford Coupe owned by the son of A.C. Stoxen of Bassett, Wis. Police officers found the car later on Hickory Road. Two tires were removed. On Saturday evening at the Channel Lake pavilion the Ford Sedan owned by Miss Deedie Tiffany was missed and Deputy Sheriff Rosing, on Sunday, received a report that it was picked up near Richmond. The two front wheels were removed. A Nash car, owned by one of the local taxi driver, was reported stolen while the driver was at the show. But it was only his partner who had caused the excitement by taking it for a drive.

20 YEARS AGO: JUNE 7, 1956

No more Antioch slough fires will endanger Little Silver Lake homes. This was the assurance given to residents of that community who sent a petition through their association president George W. Christensen asking the village to take action to prevent future fire hazards.

Saturday night will soon be omitted as a night on which parking meters must be "fed." This action comes as a result of a survey of merchants, conducted by the Chamber of Commerce and reported to the Village Board.

10 YEARS AGO: JUNE 9, 1966

Next Tuesday is primary election day, and the first test of the county's Votomatic voting machines.

Bus service to Chicago from Antioch and points in between started May 27 and will continue until Sept. 5. Two buses leave our village daily, and two make the trip from Chicago to Antioch each day. The bus stop is on Broadway near the village parking lot.

CAROLYN VAN PATTEN

FNB Announces 2 Promotions

The promotions of Carolyn Van Patten to mortgage officer and Louis Korom III to operations officer, effective June 1, have been announced by L.M. Woods, president of the First National Bank of Antioch.

Carolyn has been employed by the bank since December of 1967. After four years experience as a teller, she was transferred to the commercial loan department. In the fall of 1973 Carolyn took a position on the new accounts line where her duties also involved the buying and selling of stock for customers, IRA accounts, and back-up for collections and lottery.

DURING THE past year Carolyn has gone through extensive training in VA-FHA home mortgages and has attended Junior Officers School at Ball State University in Indiana.

She holds a B.S. degree in home economics with minors in business, art, speech and English from Colorado State University.

She is a member of the American Bankers Institute, an active 4-H leader on local and county levels and president of the St. Ignatius Episcopal Church Women in Antioch.

Carolyn lives at 801 Rinear

Rd., Antioch, with her husband Roger and their two sons, Eric 7 and Aaron 4.

MR. KOROM came to the First National Bank of Antioch from Massillon, Ohio. He is a 1975 graduate of the University of Akron with a B.S.B.A. degree in finance.

He has attended American Institute of Bankers Teller School, Junior Officers School and the University of Arkansas. He has been employed by the bank since the fall of 1975 as a management trainee in operations.

Lou is a member of the Antioch Rotary Club and the American Institute of Bankers.

Recreation Salaries Set

Salaries for persons working in Antioch's summer recreation program were approved by the village board Monday night, by a 4-2 vote.

Trustees J. Irving Walsh and Ronald J. Cunningham voted against the motion by William H. Seemann that the park board's recommendations be approved.

Walsh questioned the $8 an hour for tennis instructor Ron Halpern, who coached Antioch High School's tennis team this spring.

"Some tennis instructors get as high as $28 an hour," Seemann said. Other park boards tell us we're lucky to get one for $8 an hour."

Halpern will receive $8 an hour when he has a class of 12 and $6 an hour for a class with less than 12 people.

Golf instructor Chuck Spillner will be paid $4 an hour.

Bill Brenner, manager of the swimming pool, will receive $180 a week for 14 weeks. Swimming instructor Winnie Sorensen and swim team coach Marty Berry will be paid $800 for the summer, as they have in past years.

Day camp and concession stand workers will receive $1.25 and $1.50 an hour, while lifeguards receive $2.50.

Our expert on horses and women tells us that the ladies admired most by Antioch's middle-aged men include Jennifer O'Neill, Angie Dickinson, Barbara Eden, Mary Tyler Moore and that classic, Sophia Loren.

So we were stunned last week when we asked a young man in his 20's who his favorite was.

"Sophia Loren," he said.

"But she's so much older than you," we said. He grinned and replied:

"She's ageless."

DURING THE REMAINING Bicentennial celebration months, the State Bank of Antioch will be in full regalia with commemorative red, white and blue cotton flag buntings decorating its Lake St. entrance. Displaying the half-fan Bicentennial center panel are (left to right) William E. Brook, president of the State Bank and chairman of the Antioch Bicentennial Commission; Louise Johnson, Sheila Linker, Florence Babusek, and Richard J. Daniel, executive vice president of the bank. The buntings were purchased through the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, which is encouraging Antioch area retail merchants to dress up their outdoor displays for upcoming celebrations. Next Monday, June 14, incidentally, is Flag Day.

IT'S A FACT...

In the early days of the Roman Empire the conquering Caesars thought shaving was an effeminate Greek custom. It was not until the fifth century B.C. when Sicilians landed in Rome, that shaving became accepted and barber shops began to crop up in Rome. It is here that the first mention of preparing the client for shaving with a steam bath is discussed - one of the prerequisites for heated shave creams which softened the bristly whiskers.

Use Wood

When making custard, beat eggs with a wooden spoon. This permits only a small amount of air to be incorporated into the mixture and makes smoother custard.

Summertime is Family Time

To help make summer outings go smoothly, follow these tips from the child care experts at Gerber:

• Safe to tote and use are the prepared baby foods and formula which need no refrigeration before opening.

• For sunbathing or swimming, time exposure to sun. A good start for infants or babies is five minutes on each side. Use a kitchen timer. If no ill effects, increase a minute a day. Protect child in between with a light cover-up and sun hat.

• For outings or trips, take along baby's needs in a smartly styled carryall. Include a few extra diapers, vinyl pants, bottles, jars of baby foods, a sweater, favorite toys, snacks.

• For overnight visits to friends or relatives, consider the advantages of a carryall bag that zips open to make a comfortable bed. The padded sides keep baby in, drafts out. When closed, there is room for baby's travel needs.

Firemen: 8 Calls In 5 Days

Antioch's volunteer fire fighters made eight calls between last Wednesday and Sunday, raising their total for the year to 104.

Last Wednesday a two-car garage at 642 W. North Ave. was engulfed in flames and a total loss by the time firemen could get there. A young boy playing with matches apparently set the fire. (Picture on page 1.)

There was a bomb threat at Quaker Industries last Friday at 5:20 p.m. but a search revealed no bomb in the area.

On Saturday, Antioch's fire department divers were called to Gurnee to provide mutual aid in a drowning.

A hay chopping machine suffered some damage in a fire at Elmwood farms on Hy. 45 Sunday afternoon. Later that afternoon, there was a fire in an upstairs bedroom of the Red Arrow tavern on Deep Lake Rd. Fire Chief Charles (Tod) Mapletorpe said loss to the building and contents was light and the cause was still undetermined.

State Losing Industry, Howlett Is Concerned

BLOOMINGTON - Michael J. Howlett, Democratic candidate for Governor, said here that he plans to make economic development a key part of his administration.

Howlett addressed the Young Men's Club of Bloomington.

He said Illinois, and the Great Lakes states generally, have been losing industry elsewhere, especially to the South and Southwest.

He said he has created an advisory committee, headed by John Kennedy, former state Director of General Services, to assemble an economic development program.

To keep it going, he would appoint a blue-ribbon task force, drawn from all segments of private enterprise, in the new administration.

"In this decade, population in the South and Southwest has been growing six times as fast as in the Great Lakes region," said Howlett.

"As population shifts, so do markets. New markets attract new plants, new business, new services - all taxable.

Village Board

The first step was taken at Monday night's village board meeting when the trustees voted 6-0 on Mike Haley's suggestion that the board get an appraisal on the Tereal property. Purchasing it would be the next step.

Mayor Wilton said, "there's a lot of property over there and I think we can utilize it."

He sees the possibility of Orchard St. being extended to the east and being joined to Depot St. by extending Corona Ave. to the south. Orchard also could curve south behind the stores on Main St. and connect with Park Ave., which is just south of Barnstables' parking lot. In turn, that could lead to a parking lot behind the stores on the east side of Main St., something the merchants are extremely interested in.

AT MONDAY'S meeting, the trustees also accepted the lowest of four bids for enclosing Doc Jensen park with a six-foot cyclone fence. A Barrington firm will do the job for $5,654.

The village board also urged the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) not to pass its new budget unless more money is spent in the outer counties such as Lake.

AN ORDINANCE regarding loitering was passed by a 6-0 vote. Attorney Andrew Lynch said Antioch's new ordinance is identical to one now in effect in Grayslake and North Chicago.

He said the police department was anxious for its passage.

It defines loitering, including the colloquial expression "hanging around," and makes it unlawful for any person to loiter in a public place in such a manner as to "clearly cause an immediate, actual physical, violent reaction from any person of ordinary sensibilities, which reaction will cause or create a threat to the peace and good order of the public."

It also prohibits the obstruction of the free passage of pedestrians or vehicles, and obstructing, molesting or interfering with any person who is lawfully in a public place.

If persons under the age of 18 violate the ordinance, their parents or guardian will be notified by the police. If another violation happens within 30 days, the parents or guardian will be held responsible. Violation of the loitering ordinance can result in fines ranging from $10 to $500.

THE VILLAGE board accepted Bruce Jablonski's resignation from the planning commission because of "increasing obligations."

Mayor Wilton appointed Michael Teeley, director of environmental education at the Upper Grade School, to replace Jablonski and asked Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz to write a letter thanking Jablonski for "the tremendous amount of work he did" in his several years on the commission.

Because auto dealers must wait till the 1977 models come out in the fall before they can meet specifications for a new police car, a village committee composed of Ron Cunningham, Mike Haley, Walter Shepard and Chief Jack Wells were authorized to go out and shop for a suitable 1976 car.

"We can't wait till fall," Haley said, "because the car we're replacing is on its last legs."

MAYOR WILTON said a meeting will be held at 7 o'clock tonight (Wednesday) at the village hall for committees planning Antioch's gala Fourth of July celebration. The theme is "Those Were the Days."

It was learned that the village planning commission will meet again on Thursday, June 17, and then will meet at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, June 22, at the Lake Villa village hall with the planning commissions from Lake Villa and Lindenhurst. The three communities are cooperating in their anticipation of future growth.

Following a public hearing, the trustees voted 6-0 to pass an annexation agreement bringing the Antioch Bowling Lanes property into the village.

Operation Red Ball

"Save a Child" is the slogan of the "Red Ball" campaign sponsored by the Rotary Club of Antioch in connection with the village fire department.

The red ball is placed in the window of the living area of a child or an invalid so that in case of an emergency, the firemen can identify that room.

The red balls are available at no charge from the fire department, the police station and the Antioch News.

Assistant Building Inspector Is Sought

The village of Antioch is going to hire an assistant building inspector.

The deadline for applications is only a week away. It's 4 p.m. on Wednesday, June 16.

The village board said Monday night that the new employee's salary would be commensurate with the person's experience.

Resumes should be submitted to the village clerk at 874 Main St.

Rescue Squad Now Has Made 300 Calls

The Antioch Rescue Squad made 30 calls during the last two weeks and now has logged a total of 300 calls so far this year.

Fifteen of last week's 16 calls were to administer first aid and the other was to treat an accident victim.

In nine cases the injured persons were transported by the rescue squad to area hospitals.

The previous week the squad made 14 calls, including three to accident sites and one to assist the Antioch Fire Department.

Family Film Here Sunday

"Time to Run," a movie that is a mixture of problems and solutions, will be shown at 7 p.m. Sunday at the Antioch Evangelical Free Church, Tiffany Rd. at Highview Drive.

Filmed in color by World Wide Pictures, on location in southern California, "Time to Run" stars Ed Nelson, Barbara Sigel and Gordon Rigby.

Nelson plays Warren Cole, a hard driving success-oriented industrial and scientific engineer who, because of over-involvement with his work, has failed to communicate with his wife Fran, played by Joan Winmill, or their son Jeff, played by screen newcomer Randall Carver.

"TIME TO RUN" allows the viewer to become involved on three different levels. Viewed purely as entertainment, it's the suspenseful story of Jeff's attempts at sabotage in the nuclear generating plant conceived, designed and managed by his father. Jeff strongly feels that the plant is a threat to the environment, and he puts his feelings in action.

Viewed on an emotional level, "Time to Run" is the deeply moving drama of the conflicts that are tearing a family apart - conflicts that develop between husband and wife, and between father and son.

In an attempt to find freedom from the ever-growing hostilities, Jeff takes to the road, hoping to discover some meaning in his confused life.

APPROACHED FROM a religious perspective, "Time to Run" is also a story of friction between Jeff and his girlfriend, Michelle, played by Barbara Sigel, who is a familiar face to television viewers.

Michelle has discovered a spiritual dimension in her life, and this aspect is very confusing to Jeff, who has little time for "a God who would allow war, hatred, and suffering on earth." But his life is shattered by an avalanche of personal problems, and he finds himself at a Jesus people gathering with Michelle, where he glimpses the possibility of a new life-style based on love and understanding.

Pastor Bernard Fosmark of the Antioch Evangelical Free Church said:

"Time to Run" is a film that can help strengthen love relationships between people. It's a film that was made for families to attend - together."

"Since 1950, factory jobs in the Great Lakes states have increased only 4.3 percent, while they have leaped 76 percent in the Southeast, 141 percent in the Southwest and 20 percent nationally.

"We must develop a positive program in Illinois to overcome the competition.

"Economic growth is the best way to avoid an increase in the tax rate," said Howlett.

Plan 'Tuesday School' At Methodist Church

The church school of the Antioch United Methodist Church will be putting some old concepts under new cover during the summer months.

Rather than the traditional "Sunday School" there will be "Tuesday School." Church school classes from pre-kindergarten through the 6th grade will meet at the church each Tuesday morning from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. June 15 to Aug. 17.

The new schedule will double the time available for Christian study and fellowship. Greater flexibility will be possible.

"We are already planning a picnic for all students and an evening cookout for students and their families. We will have a snack or treat each Tuesday," said Rev. Stephen Williams. "All are welcome to attend."

For further information or to register for "Tuesday School," please call 395-3819 or 395-1259.

Women of the Moose To Install Officers

The Antioch Women of the Moose will install new officers and chairmen at 8 p.m. on Saturday, June 19.

A dance will follow at 10 p.m. to the music of "The Changing Times."

Installation practice is scheduled next Tuesday, June 15.

Fifty-two members attended the meeting at which elections were held. The officers for 1976-77 are Norma Lowe, senior regent; Betty Schulmeister,

In May, 77 members attended a special dinner and saw Betty Schulmeister crowned "queen of the sponsors," for enrolling five new candidates.

A bus trip to Mooseheart is planned this Saturday when June Ballenger will receive her cap and gown.

Howlett

activity raises revenue to maintain or increase the public services which government provides, without increasing the tax rate.

"Where population declines, or grows more slowly, the tax base goes down. Government then has to raise taxes or reduce services.

Howlett said the South and Southwest have advantages of warmer weather, cheaper living costs and attractions for pension and retirees.

But Illinois has advantages too, he said - fertile soil, transportation, skilled labor, expert management, coal and energy resources.

He said Illinois can compete successfully by aggressive selling of its advantages and by showing it is a friend to business and industry.

He said we must regain control over state government spending, review every agency to eliminate waste, cut out red tape and unnecessary reporting, and administer the state's regulatory powers fairly, in coordination with federal and local regulation.

"We will let business and industry know we need and want them," he said.

Strength of the dollar makes this a good time to visit Europe. Devaluation of foreign currencies now make American dollars worth more.

If you've been putting off a trip to Europe because of inflationary rates there, this is the time to go. In Ireland, for example, the annual inflation rate is about 20 percent, but as a result of devaluation of the pound, visitors from the United States are paying only about 4 percent more for goods than a year ago.

The picture is similar in the United Kingdom, Italy, Portugal, Greece and Spain.

Some tour costs are being cut to reflect the strength of the dollar against European currencies. For example, TWA has reduced the price of the land portion of seven tours to Italy by 10 percent. TAP Portuguese Airlines and Spain's Iberia Airlines have cut the prices of some tour programs by an equal amount.

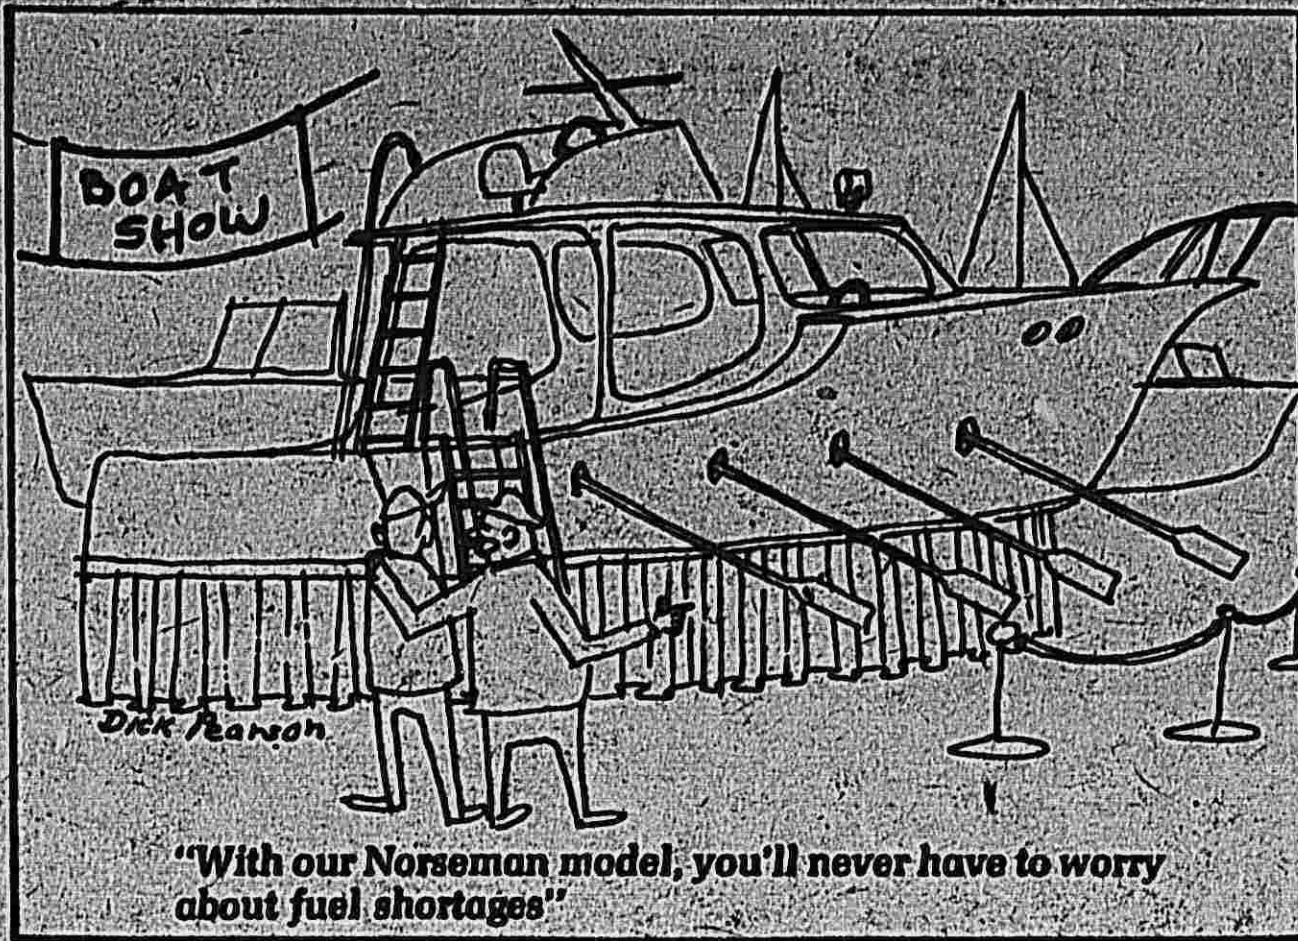

Other efforts also are being made to hold down prices so as to lure more Americans to Europe. For example, a 3 percent increase in Ireland's hotel tax is being absorbed by tour wholesalers, rather than being passed along to clients. And in Greece, the rates for many first class hotel rooms have been set at their 1975 levels.

Because of the above-mentioned benefits, bookings are above last year's so it is wise to make plans early. Also, if you want more of a bargain, avoid the summer rates and crowds by going this early fall. Fall in Europe is like fall in the Midwest or East Coast. Stop in for some free advice and literature.

liberals - because it was the easiest and most politically popular course - pooh-poohed the fears and warnings of those who called for a halt to reckless spending and pie-in-the-sky schemes.

So convincing were they that most previously concerned Americans were lulled into believing that their apprehensions were groundless. Now we know differently.

TRAGICALLY, THE devastation caused by years of deficit spending and abuse of power (most of it concentrated in the federal government and individuals) under the guise of the welfare state shows every sign of coinciding with our celebration of the 200th birthday of the Republic.

Most federal officials, and a great many congressmen and senators, know the true state of affairs and have known it for some time, but most of them appear afflicted with a strange disease that manifests itself in a conviction that the American people should not know the truth or that "it can't happen here."

It doesn't help any, but it is ironic to realize that the trouble we presently face was the work of the "big spenders" in Congress who right now are raising the chant about the "public's right to know" every detail of every sordid mess hinted at by the news media, but who do not want the truth about our economic situation exposed either at home or abroad.

I BELIEVE this is no time for the American people to be hoodwinked by still another double standard established by public officials, members of Congress, or the news media.

Americans have the guts to take the bad news and the intelligence to do what is necessary to reverse our downward trend. This has been proven time and time again throughout the 200-year history of this country, yet everyone, especially those in the present Administration, tiptoes around as though the opposite were true.

But I repeat, the American public can take it - the trouble is that for months on end nobody has told them just what they will have to take.

Superstition has it that if you walk into a spider's web you will get a letter or meet a friend!

When you reach the end of your rope, tie a knot and hang on.

In World War II one of our finer generals said to the Germans when they asked him to surrender, "Nuts!" And I say just that today to those who fear the American people don't have what it takes to measure up to the difficulties and discomforts that they will have to undergo if the nation is to be put back on an even keel.

In the 15th century some people carried a portable sundial in their pockets to tell the time.

LAST WEEK'S Memorial Day parade in Antioch was a complete success, according to parade marshals James Ferrier of the American Legion and John Craner of the VFW post.

Ferrier and Craner said the Legion and the VFW "Wish to thank all those who participated. And our special thanks to our mayor, master of ceremonies and speaker of the day."

ANTIOCH JAYCEES will hold their annual dinner to install new officers.

The event will be at The Harbor Marine Saturday, with cocktails between 6:30 and 7 p.m. The main course is filet mignon.

Paul Kinas will become the new president of the Jaycees.

A CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST is being planned by the Antioch Rainbow Girls Sunday.

The event will be held from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, 885 Main St. Prices are $2.25 for adults and $1.25 for children under 12.

SQUARE DANCERS from throughout the area are invited to attend the Antioch Diamond Hashers' "open graduation dance" on Friday night.

The event will be held at the Antioch Lower Grade School, Depot and Main Streets, and Ted Palmen will be the caller from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

Dog Show Sunday

An all-breed dog show will be held at the Fairgrounds in Grayslake on Sunday.

The 26th annual show will be sponsored by the Chain-o-Lakes Kennel Club. The show is considered one of the biggest and best in the Midwest.

Judging of the 2,500 dogs will begin promptly at 9 a.m. and continue until 5 p.m.

Admission for adults is $1; children under 12 free, and young adults from 12 to 18 years are admitted for 50c. Parking space is available free on the grounds and refreshments also will be available.

After a "Best of Breed" is declared for each of the 100 different breeds of dogs entered in the show, the various breeds compete against each other in groups. There are six groups determined by the size and type of dogs including the working group, the sporting group, hounds, terriers, toys and the non-sporting group. When the six group winners are declared, they then compete for the coveted "Best in Show" honors.

In the "Junior Showmanship" competition, young handlers will put their dogs through the paces. The junior handlers are divided by age groups and experience in showing.

The winners of the various groups will compete for the "Best Junior Handler" award.

The Chain-O-Lakes Kennel Club is a non-profit organization. Each year the club provides a scholarship to an Illinois resident in veterinary school.

The club also donates to various foundations and laboratories dedicated to research for dogs.

THE "SWEET BETSY" will be one of three bands providing entertainment for the Antioch Chamber of Commerce & Industry's 4th annual Arts, Crafts and Antiques Fair on Sunday, July 11 from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. There will be no rain date. More than 100 artists, craftsmen and antique dealers, both professional and amateur, will display their wares in the village parking lot on Broadway St., between Lake and Orchard streets. A variety of refreshments will be sold by service organizations, churches and youth groups. Exhibitor entries are still being accepted. For a registration form, contact the Chamber office, 909 Main St., 395-3381.

Sunday's show is being chaired by Ronald Venn of Northbrook.

ARIES [March 21-April 19] - This is an excellent time for you to work on furthering your education. Everything seems to be under your control now and most situations can be handled with no problem.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - Chances are improved for advancement where employment is concerned. There is also a strong possibility of monetary gain from some unexpected source.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - Opposition from others shouldn't disturb you now as you seem to know your goals but do practice diplomacy. Try to maintain a good working relationship with fellow employees.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - Take care of the details and small matters, this way you are sure to gain more consideration and praise from higher ups. Don't neglect entertainment and recreation.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - By circulating more you are in a better position to meet one who can be of special benefit on a long-term basis. Added energy must be used constructively.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - Family members may be a bit difficult now but remain staunch on firm decisions you've made. An outside opinion on domestic matters may prove worthwhile.

LIBRA [September 23-October 22] - Your chances of persuading others of your ideas are exceptional so don't hesitate to get busy communicating on important matters.

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - Although concentration may be difficult it's best to stick to one project; apply will power and do your utmost to complete pending matters.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22-December 20] - Lay the groundwork now for investments in real estate or anything pertaining to property; the move comes later.

CAPRICORN [December 21-January 20] - It may be necessary to develop an entirely new attitude toward certain people. Instead of letting tensions build up try to work out a favorable relationship.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - Renewed friendships can be enjoyed; also there's an element of luck with you regarding finances but be careful not to speculate.

PISCES [February 19-March 20] - More progress has been made on your part than is now evident so keep spirits high. Outlook for coming trend is favorable for you to gain a more firm footing.

Police Investigate Suicide, Burglaries

A 42-year-old woman apparently killed herself with a 20-gauge shotgun Sunday evening.

The police report said her name was Grace Llanas and the apparent suicide took place at Rt. 4, Box 210, on the northwest side of the village.

Officer Stan Revell reported he was on routine patrol in the area, at 6 p.m., when he was flagged down by a woman and a man coming out of an apartment.

The couple identified themselves as Mr. and Mrs. James Bauer of Milwaukee and said they found Ms. Llanas when they arrived to visit her. She was pronounced dead by a deputy coroner.

Revell said when he entered the building he witnessed what he believed to be a verified suicide.

Mrs. Bauer said she had talked to the woman on the telephone and that Ms. Llanas was depressed, threatened suicide and said she had a shotgun.

IN ANOTHER case, Antioch police arrested a 19-year-old Lake Villa man last Saturday when they saw two subjects leave the Ben Franklin store with assorted garden tools with long handles.

The men tried to run from the police but one was caught. The other later turned himself in. Store managers said the tools were worth $153.

The two young men are free on bond and have a June 17 court date in Waukegan.

THE TRILOGY Amusement Shop at 391 Lake St. was hit by a criminal for the second time in five days when its cash register was stolen last Friday.

On Memorial Day it was slightly damaged by a type of fire bomb. Last Friday, Dennis Volling of 912 David St. told police he was passing by at 6:23 a.m. when he noticed a broken window.

Officer Harold Mason and store owner Raymond F. Nowak went to the scene and found that a window, cracked by the fire, had been broken out and a burglar had reached in and removed the drawer from the cash register. Nowak said it contained about $40 in change.

THAT'S RIGHT the cost of your auto insurance may be higher this year than it was last year. Why? Simply because the things insurance buys cost more this year than before. Basically your premium pays for two things: To repair people and to repair automobiles.

fix autos. Auto repair costs are up 23 percent in one year.

If you have an insurance company that isn't raising its rates, be thankful. And plant a kiss on the forehead of your friendly agent.

Inflation hits an insurance company just like everybody else. Right in the pocket book.

Oops, have to leave now. My golf cart is ready.

Clean your air conditioner and save some money.

A dirty air conditioner has to work harder. That wastes money.

When your air conditioner is dirty, it has to work harder. That takes more energy. And you end up wasting money. A good periodic cleaning will make your air conditioner more efficient, and will help you save on its operating costs. It's possible to clean most window units in only about 10 minutes. You should check your owner's manual for specific cleaning and maintenance instructions, but in most cases the steps to follow in cleaning are very simple. And the more thoroughly you clean, the more money you'll save.

Vacuum the filter and save a little.

First pull the plug. Then take off the front panel, and carefully remove the filter. You can vacuum it while it's still in place, but it's easier to clean the filter well if you remove it first.

Wash the filter and save a little more.

Your owner's manual will tell you whether the filter in your air conditioner is the kind that can be washed and reused. If it is, you can get the filter even cleaner by first vacuuming it, and then hand washing it in warm water and a gentle detergent. The type of soap recommended for washing woollens is best suited to this job.

Save on central air.

If you've got central air conditioning in your home, there are several steps you can take to keep your central air system running efficiently. Remember to clean or replace your furnace filters regularly. Clear away any debris from around the outdoor unit. And keep grass and shrubs trimmed back to 12 inches away from any working parts.

A call for help may help you save.

If you've had your air conditioner for several years and have never cleaned it before, it could take a qualified serviceman to perform the kind of maintenance and repairs that may be necessary. In an older unit the condenser coil, refrigerant charge, and motor parts may need expert attention.

More ways to save.

The idea of using timers on air conditioners is catching on. You can plug your window unit into an automatic timer made especially for air conditioners. It works just like the kind of timer you'd use to turn your lights on automatically when you're away from home. You can set the timer so that your air conditioner comes on an hour or so before you get home from work on a hot summer day. That way your house will be comfortable when you arrive, but you'll be using less electricity. And your air conditioner won't be running all day long.

There's one last thing you should remember about air conditioners, especially if you're thinking about buying a new one.

Air conditioner efficiency varies from model to model, depending on what we call the Energy Efficiency Ratio, or EER. The higher the EER, the more cooling you get for your electric dollar, year after year. It's easy to figure out the EER. Attached to every air conditioner is a metal plate showing that machine's watts and BTUs. To get the EER, just divide the watts into the BTUs. We recommend an EER of 8 or more.

The more efficiently you use energy, the less energy you waste, and the more money you save. And an efficient air conditioner can save you plenty.

Gift for Dad

Dad has a closetful of shirts and ties, his bar is well-stocked, he's read every book on the best-seller list and you're stumped for a gift for Father's Day.

Surprise him with a gift that's truly unexpected... one that may cost more time than it does money. Here are some suggestions:

- Decoupage an appropriately masculine-looking print onto an interesting piece of wood, for a plaque Dad will appreciate.

- Brighten Dad's workshop with stacked cubes, gaily painted, for handy storing of miscellaneous items.

- An inexpensive wastebasket can be fancied up with scenic prints, pasted on and shellacked over, for Dad's den.

ACHS Band Prepares For Several Parades

Members of the Antioch High School marching Sequoit band will participate Saturday in the Chicago Flag Day parade.

According to John Olisar, director of the local band, the parade is being described as the most spectacular in the history of the United States.

The parade will feature more American flags than have ever been displayed in one location at one time, promoters of the event say. It will be a salute to the flag, the symbol of our nation's heritage and freedom.

THE PARADE will proceed down State St., Chicago's "Route of Champions," over which heads of state, kings, queens, astronauts and world heroes have traveled.

The "Marching Sequoits" also will be seen in the Lindenhurst Bicentennial parade on Sunday, June 20, the Antioch Fourth of July parade, and the Racine Bicentennial parade on July 5.

To conclude the summer season, Mr. Olisar will prepare his "Marching Sequoits" for their invitation to perform at Minnesota's Aquatennial celebration in Minneapolis, with the parade scheduled Saturday, July 17.

THE ANTIOCH band won second place in Class AA competition last Saturday in the Harvard, Ill., Milk Day parade. A crowd of 80,000, including President Ford's daughter, Susan, attended.

Ninety units participated in the parade. Antioch's second-place trophy for marching band competition will be displayed at the high school.

For Milk Day, the city of Harvard paints its Main Street white.

Bodin, Boarini Pick Elmhurst

Two all-conference football players from Antioch High School, quarterback Jon Bodin and end Chris Boarini, have announced their plans to enroll at Elmhurst College in the fall.

The passing of Bodin to Boarini helped Antioch finish second in the Northwest Suburban Conference last fall. Bodin also starred as a defensive halfback.

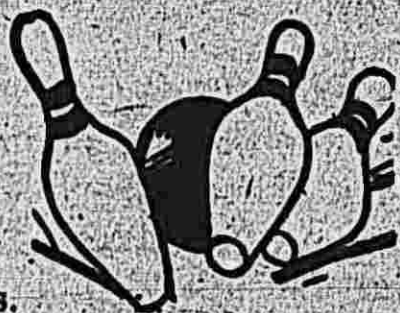

Elmhurst College, at Elmhurst, Ill., is currently in the process of revitalizing its varsity football program. An expanded recruiting program and new head coach, Tom Beck, lead many fans to expect great improvement next year. Last year the team won only two games and lost seven.

Beck, former offensive coordinator for Northern Illinois University and head coach for Illinois Benedictine College for four years, has had a reputation for turning programs into winners.

Elmhurst is a small liberal arts college offering 35 major fields of study leading to B.A. and B.S. degrees. It is located just 16 miles west of Chicago.

Metropolitan Tournament At Antioch Lanes Sunday

The women's finals for the 3rd annual Metropolitan Chicago Bowling Proprietors Council team handicap tournament will be held Sunday at 7 p.m. at the Antioch Bowling Lanes.

The top prizes to be awarded will be $3,000, plus five Elgin watches for the first place team.

The second place award is $1,700, plus five electric clocks.

The Antioch Bowling Lanes had 64 women's teams entered in the preliminaries and 74 men's teams. These were held at the Antioch lanes.

Eight women's teams and eight men's teams from the Antioch lanes went to the semi-finals held last weekend.

Last year the Antioch Bowl had two in the finals. The men's team from Al's Cigo Service placed seventh and won $800. The women's team from the First National Bank of Antioch placed 12th and won $375.

The public is invited to watch Sunday night's competition.

Duck and goose hunters will have a chance to express opinions on next fall's waterfowl season.

The Department of Conservation has scheduled five public meetings on waterfowl and is extending an invitation for all interested persons to attend.

"We're interested in hearing what Illinois sportsmen have to say about waterfowl hunting," said Tony Dean, director of the Department of Conservation. "The meetings will also give the department an opportunity to discuss management issues and season options. We will report on the progress of the new duck stamp projects and guess-estimate the outlook for the coming season."

Dates and meeting sites are: Wednesday (tonight), Marriott Motor Hotel, 8535 W. Higgins Rd., Chicago; Thursday, Sheraton Inn, Rock Island; Wednesday, June 16, Holiday Inn, Bloomington; Thursday, June 17, Holiday Inn, Collinsville; and Wednesday, June 23, Holiday Inn, Marion.

All meetings begin at 7:30 p.m. and end at 10 p.m.

Agenda items include: season date options, teal season, bag limits, steel shot progress, a zoning proposal submitted to the Fish and Wildlife Service, progress on state migratory waterfowl fund projects, water conditions on the northern breeding grounds, issues of local interest and a question and answer session.

Dean said the meetings will be chaired by Dave Kennedy, associate director of natural resources, and will be attended by representatives of the division of wildlife resources.

"We hope waterfowl hunters will make a real effort to attend these public meetings," Dean stated. "Though our primary concern is the proper management of birds migrating through Illinois, it is important that we get the many different viewpoints held by sportsmen."

Tom Jones (Not the Singer) Is Lake Geneva Ace

Tom Jones, Northbrook, missed a clean sweep of auto racing events at the Lake Geneva Raceway Saturday night when the best he could manage was a third spot in the fast heat won by Ron Schuyler, Jefferson.

Jones drove his 1976 Camaro to fast time of 16.94 seconds, started in the back of the 30-lap feature race and took the lead on the 17th lap when the engine in Larry Hicks' Dodge Challenger gave out while leading.

When Hicks went out, Vaughn Gerke was the only competition as Jones held him off to score a win in his first appearance here this season.

Conrad Morgan won the semi-feature in a close finish with Jerry Straube, Waterford, trying to get around on the final turn. Other winners included Danny Darnell, Deerfield. He is the son of USAC stock car driver Bay Darnell, who had qualified for the fourth row in the USAC stock car race at the Texas International Speedway earlier in the day. Bay had won an earlier feature race at the Lake Geneva Raceway in a 1976 Camaro which had been re-worked in his race car shops in Lake Bluff.

THE FIRST RACE OF THE NEW TWO-TRACK Super Modified Asphalt Championship race series produced two feature winners as Ron Marish, Milwaukee, and Dave Bliss, Huntel (Ill.) took wins.

Fast-time qualifier, Ken Monroe, Pell Lake, who turned a 16.42 second lap, was second in the second feature behind Bliss but could only manage a fourth in the first feature.

The first feature ran non-stop but in the second, leaders Mike Simko, Milwaukee and Bob Robel, Oconomowoc, made contact and spun, bringing out the yellow caution signal. On the restart, Bliss was the leader with Robel and Simko being sent to the back. The decision was not popular with Simko, who drove into the pits and out of the race.

Heat race winners were Ron Bergsma, Richmond; Marish and Robel.

Robel Is Star At Waukegan

Bob Robel, Oconomowoc, Wis., won the 25-lap feature race for super-modified stock cars at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night.

The race was the first for the super-modifieds on the Waukegan track in several years and also marked the first of the new two track weekly series of SMAC racing which includes the Lake Geneva Raceway for the cars each Friday night.

With the win in the feature as well as a 10-lap heat race, combined with a Friday night win at Lake Geneva, Robel now leads all drivers in the number of wins. Official point standings will be announced later.

Robel started 13th and took the lead from Dick Colburn of Muskego, Wis., who stayed close to finish second. Colburn took the lead for just two laps from Butch Bergsma, Richmond but at the end it was Butch's brother, Ron, in third with Ken Monroe, Pell Lake, and Bill Klein, Burlington, rounding out the top five.

Carmen Menzardo of Antioch was sixth.

Fast time qualifier Mike Simko, Milwaukee, with a lap of 13.80 seconds finished eighth.

The 12-lap semi-feature race was won by Menzardo.

ANTIOCH PROMOTERS who agreed to start the new SMAC, "Super Modified Asphalt Championship," race series between their two tracks, were at the Lake Geneva Raceway Friday night for the first race night and were in "victory circle" to honor Ken Monroe, Pell Lake, following his win in the Champion's Challenge Dash. Gordon Sill, left, promotes the Waukegan Speedway where the super-modifieds race in the SMAC series each Sunday night. Presenting the trophy to Monroe is Lake Villa's trophy queen, Kathy Williams. Behind them is Ray Toft, Antioch, who promotes not only the Friday night SMAC race series at Lake Geneva on Friday nights, but the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot on Saturday night, where super-modifieds and sportsman stock cars are in action.

Antioch Drivers Race at Wilmot

Antioch drivers made their presence known Saturday night in auto racing competition at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot.

Chuck Ostergaard turned in the fastest qualifying time for sportsman stock cars and Don Collins was third, behind Sid Norton of McHenry.

In the 15-lap sportsman feature, won by Ron Holtdorf of Union Grove, Wis., Ostergaard placed fifth, Tom Homan of Antioch seventh, Brian Outtin of Lake Villa eighth and Bob Dworak of Antioch 10th.

John Dost of Antioch was second in the six-lap heat race.

RON BERGSMA, Richmond, started on the pole in the 25 lap super-modified feature race and after a wheel-to-wheel battle for the lead with Jimmy Hendges, Kenosha, held off a last-turn charge by champion Dick Colburn, Muskego, and went on to win his second feature of the season in a Plymouth powered super-modified.

His other win came on the Toft Auto Racing-promoted Lake Geneva Raceway on May 10.

Fast time qualifier, and track recordholder, Dick St. John, Milwaukee, set a blistering time trial of 17.4 seconds. The record is 17.2 seconds.

"It was by far the best racing of the season with nearly 40 super-modifieds taking time trials and nearly that many sportsman stock cars. Fan attendance was better than it had been so far this season in nights of cooler weather racing," said Ray Toft, promoter.

Former champion Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, finished second in a heat race but his car caught fire in the feature and he pulled out. The fire was quickly extinguished and there was little danger to Harris or the car.

Taxpayers Have Right To Appeal IRS Audits

Last year, some taxpayers received letters from the Internal Revenue Service asking them to provide records for an audit of their Federal Income Tax Returns.

At the conclusion of the audits, the IRS gave each of the taxpayers a form to sign saying the taxpayers agreed with the results of their audits, and all signed without question, paying any tax the IRS said they owed.

Right? Wrong! A number of the taxpayers who participated in those audits exercised their right to disagree with the IRS and appeal the examiners' decisions. That right is one of several every taxpayer has.

For example, taxpayers may obtain a variety of publications and printed materials and receive other forms of taxpayer assistance from the IRS in order to file a complete, accurate and timely return. This assistance is available all year. Taxpayers who are delinquent in paying their taxes have the right to expect that IRS collection procedures are as fair and evenhanded as possible.

MINOR LEAGUE SEASON OPENS - Mayor Robert C. Wilton throws the first pitch to open the minor league portion of Antioch's Little League baseball program. The instructional league is for boys 8 years and older who might be Little Leaguers in a year or two. Men in the background are Tom Haviland and Bernie Gutowski, league officers, and Ace Mueller, manager of the Angels who beat the Astros 9-1 in the opening game. (Point a camera at a young baseball player and, almost every time, he'll blow a bubble for you.)

AS ANTIOCH'S Little League season picks up interest, Tom Bailey bears down on the mound for the State Bank Tigers. The Tigers were runnersup in last year's championship playoffs.

Recreation Program Begins Next Week

Antioch's summer recreation program will be in full swing next Monday.

"We hope to have an exciting schedule," said Sue Koppa, the village's coordinator of parks and recreation. "Our day camp program will include educational, cultural and recreational activities for the youngsters."

Mrs. Koppa said tennis lessons will be offered to beginners, intermediates and advanced players and "tennis tips" will be given in the Antioch News to help players improve their games.

Dick Harland and Harley

Ware are encouraging young people to join their track and field program.

"It will not only be a great physical fitness program, but also a learning program for anyone interested in track and field, and jogging," Mrs. Koppa said.

No per-registration is necessary and the program begins from 6 to 8 p.m. next Tuesday at the high school track. It is for persons 8 to 80 years of age.

Golf lessons for women and students, 9 years and older, will be offered at Spring Valley Country Club on Mondays and Fridays beginning June 21.

TENNIS LESSONS for students and adults begin on Monday of next week. There also are classes for children 9 years and older. The complete schedule is available from Mrs. Koppa at the village hall. Next week the instruction will be at FACES IN THE CROWD -- An Antioch Little Leaguer waits in the stands as his team gets psychologically ready for the evening's second game. Who is he? We don't know. But if he comes to the Antioch News office, 950 Main St., Thursday or later, we'll present him with a $10 gift certificate from Barnstables Department Store.

AMONG THE "Faces in the Crowd" at the Little League park was this nice-looking lad in the striped shirt. Our telephoto lens singled him out for a $10 gift certificate from Bernie's Delicatessen. If he stops at the Antioch News office, 950 Main St., Thursday or later, we'll present it to him.

ONE OF last week's "Faces in the Crowd" was Tracy Donner, who won a $10 gift certificate from the BJ Rush Photo Studio. We are still seeking the identity of the man who won a $10 gift certificate at BJ's Fashions for Men. If we don't hear from him this week, we'll print his picture again.

'Antioch Open' Golf Tourney Being Planned

The tournament committee will meet next week to plan the format of the first annual Antioch Open golf championship.

The 36-hole tournament will be played at Antioch Country Club on two Sundays, Aug. 22 and 29.

After next week's committee meeting, entry blanks will be available.

Sunday, Sept. 12, will be reserved as a rain date.

It will be a scratch tournament, with no handicaps, and trophies and prizes will be awarded to the best players.

There will be competition in three divisions:

- The Championship Flight, for players who normally shoot in the 70s for 18 holes.

- The Class A Flight for golfers who shoot in the 80s.

- The Class B Flight for golfers who normally score in the 90s or higher.

The championship tournament, the first of its kind in the Antioch area in many years, will be co-sponsored by the Antioch Country Club and the Antioch News.

It will be open to anyone living or working in Antioch and Lake Villa townships.

Entry blanks will appear regularly in the Antioch News during June and July, and early in August. More information on the tournament will appear in the Antioch News as the tournament committee meets to set up the rules.

The committee includes Rich Higgins, Mike Haley, Jack Fields, Pres Reckers, Nick Marucci, the pro at Antioch Country Club, and Jerry Pfarr.

Glamorous Sports Cars At Lakehurst

By SUE SNOW

The Northern Illinois Sports Car Association's annual show and competition come to Lakehurst's Central Court Saturday and Sunday.

In addition to the "Best of Show" trophy, awards are offered in three other categories: foreign vehicles, American made sports cars and Corvettes.

Judging the show are a professional auto-body painting repairman, a professional auto mechanic and a local individual from a non-related profession but with an interest in sports cars.

Judging begins at 1:30 p.m. Sunday and the presentation of trophies is set for 3:30 p.m.

NISCA member Kay Ciolek of North Chicago is showing her glamorous 1971 bronze-blond Corvette, complete with genuine leather upholstery and door panels of imitation autumn haze mink.

Climbing Up the Ladder Successfully

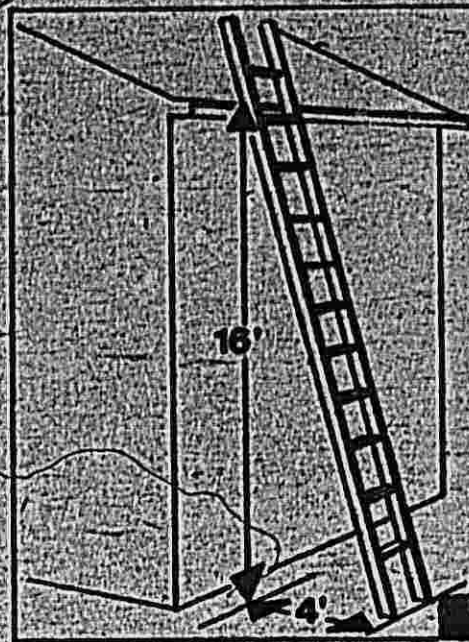

Every year, 30,000 to 40,000 Americans are injured by falling off of ladders. Depending on how you use it, your ladder can be a convenient means for carrying out home improvement ideas, or a springboard for a free fall.

Ed Killoren, an Underwriters Laboratories safety engineer, urges that you use a ladder that is long enough for your purposes. "My experience has been that most accidents result from having too short a ladder," Killoren states. "This results in the user standing in a position where he has limited stability—a big problem when using stepladders."

When doing roof repairs, an extension or straight ladder should extend at least three feet above the eave, gutter, or roof line. Killoren adds that in this latter situation, the consumer should practice the "four-in-one" rule: the base of the ladder should be placed one foot from the wall for every four feet of ladder height. "In other words," Killoren adds, "a sixteen foot ladder with its top placed against a vertical wall should be positioned so that the base is four feet from the wall."

Killoren proposes that the following steps be taken before making your climb:

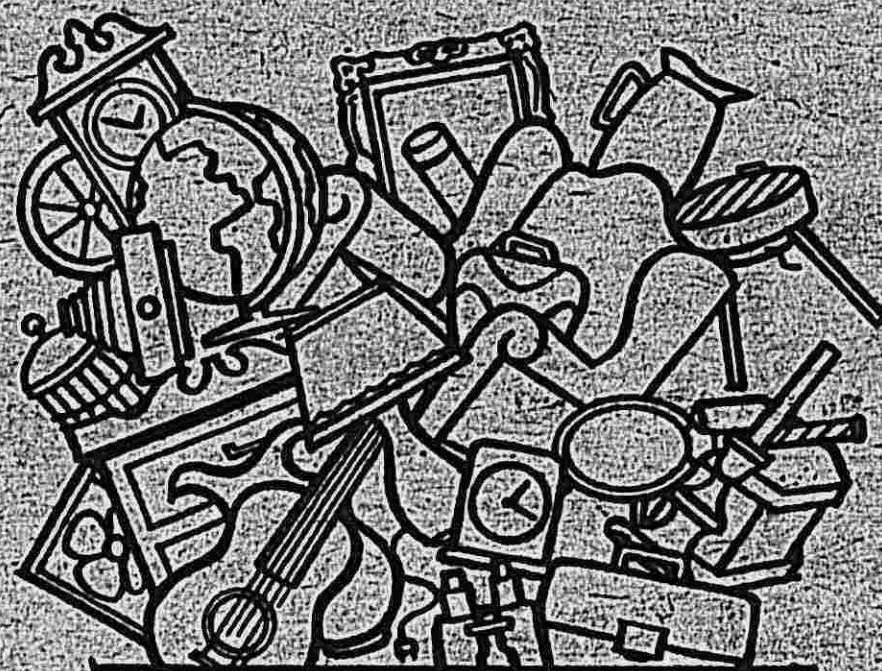

1. Set up the ladder on firm, level ground.

2. Inspect for structural damage or deterioration. If you are using a stepladder, make sure the spreader is locked before beginning your climb. Otherwise, your ladder could fold—with you on it. If you are using a metal ladder, remember to keep it away from electrical installations. A UL Listed metal ladder has a marking cautioning you against this.

Once on the ladder, Killoren reminds you not to overextend your reach. Take the time to move the ladder to a convenient location. The extra time spent could save you some extra bills—hospital bills, that is.

To have a safe, successful climb, think of safety before you ascend.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

We're sorry to report this, because of all the Antioch girls who have their eye on Robert Redford, but he said last week:

"I enjoy the discipline and challenge of remaining faithful to my wife."

We were guilty of some bad journalism last week. (Fortunately it only happens in this column about once a year.) But we mentioned that Ray Scarpelli played better in the Lions Club tennis tournament than "a prominent Antioch attorney" who had claimed he could beat Ray.

By being so vague, we accidentally indicted all Antioch attorneys. We should have specified that it was the one with the weak backhand.

CELEBRATING THEIR 50th wedding anniversary Thursday are Ray and Inez Traves of Petite Lake. The Traves had a tavern on Loon Lake from 1945 until 1972 and are the parents of Raymond Traves Jr., who operates the Woof and Wag kennel.

Before coming to Loon Lake, Ray and Inez operated a tavern in Chicago in the 1930's.

Ray Jr. and his wife Nancy have three children, Maureen, Tammi and Ray III, who will help their grandparents celebrate the golden anniversary.

HEAR TELL a surprise party was held at Andre's Steak House for Carl and Jeanette Pachay on their 35th wedding anniversary.

WHAT'S NEW in pink and blue? Well, in pink, there's Jessica Lauren Haley, the first baby born to Clem and Jan Haley. "She's beautiful," says Jan, and she was born at St.

Therese hospital on June 1, the wedding anniversary of her grandparents, Ursula and Tom Haley.

GOSH, THEY grow up fast. Little Lisa Alberts is one year old already. Her birthday was last Saturday and her parents, Steve and Dee Alberts of Lake Villa, had a party for her on Sunday. Steve is a physical education teacher at Antioch's Upper Grade School.

And we have two birthdays in the Portalski family: Kristi celebrated last Saturday and it was Jim's turn to blow out the candles and make a wish on Monday. Hope Kandi Portalski is feeling better. We hear she was home last week with a bad case of chicken pox.

Panfishing calls for experiment

By ART SCHUMANN

There's a lot of sport in panfishing, as most veteran area anglers will tell you.

When using light tackle, such fish as perch, bluegills and crappies provide a lot of action and, of course, all those types make delicious eating for fortunate anglers.

There's no secret to panfishing, but I have found several old reliables very effective during the years I've fished for panfish.

No. 1 is a conventional canepole, a two-section type I've used for many years. With a canepole, it becomes easy for the angler to drop the bobber right in those hard to reach spots where panfish generally are.

The short line allows immediate setting of the hook and direct pull into the boat in one motion. And, for something different, I sometimes rig the 7 1/2 foot flyrod with a conventional spincast reel and use that setup for panfishing.

I have found 4-6 pounds monofilament line to be effective and the flyrod seems to provide more action than a canepole. The light tackle is effective, although some anglers have gone a step further and used ultralight tackle, which isn't really necessary.

Small bobbers should be used and among the best is the light gull bobber, which rides easy on the water and will react to the slightest movement of the bait.

Some anglers believe a large bait on a large hook is the most effective method, but in the case of a bluegill or sunfish, small baits and hooks will produce more fish.

Also, since all panfish lack significant, line-cutting type teeth, there is no need to use heavy line or wire leader. In fact, the heavy line and wire leader combination tends to reduce the action and makes it more difficult for the angler to determine how to play a strike.

Crappies can be caught with a larger No. 1 or 2 hook made of soft flexible wire. But, crappies usually prefer smaller minnows.

Hooks do not have to be entirely hidden from the fish, if the bait is rigged to look natural and to allow the bait to move naturally.

I always tie the hook directly to the line and don't usually snap swivels between the hook and line since that spooks the fish.

Fishermen who like to fish for crappies generally look for brush and sunken trees and anchor their boats near the cover. Minnows and small shad have always proven to be the most effective bait for taking the fish.

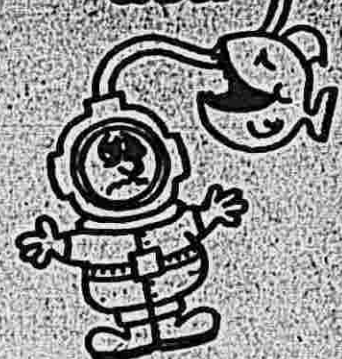

Crappies will also take such small jugs as "pinkies" or small spinners, plus flies tied behind a surface plug fastened to a 12-14 inch piece of light monofilament line.

White crappies prefer active waters — it doesn't matter when spring rains dirty the water — and black crappies prefer clear water and will move to feeder streams when a lake becomes too discolored.

Bluegills are popular fish for anglers and among the most effective lures is the redworm. Small pinkie jugs are also effective.

VACATION HOME SACRIFICE

Near the Wisconsin Dells, we must sell 10 sights within 200 yds. of a lake. Lake rights are included. These properties will be sold individually with a shell home of the purchaser's choice for one total package price. We will sell our 2 bedroom A-frame home and basic 3/4 acre sight for $9,995.00. Our 3 bedroom A-frame shell and basic 3/4 acre sight would run $11,995.00. Ranch home shells and log cabin shells are also available. Excellent financing can be arranged. These are not pre-fab or pre-cut homes, but are built from the ground up by our professional carpenters. They are beautifully finished on the outside and are studded and ready to complete on the inside.

Because we must begin now to order materials and schedule work crews, these 10 properties must be sold immediately. Our representatives will be at the sights this coming weekend June 12-13. Should 10 parcels not be sold, they will return the following weekend June 19-20. This is an absolute sale. If you've ever wanted your own summer home at a price you can afford, this is your opportunity. For further information or directions and reservations, please call Bergman, broker at 312-654-2262.

Fashion Notes:

Dad can now mix and match shirts, ties, slacks and jackets for a coordinated look that is attractive and interesting.

Manufacturers of men's fashions are now designing suits and jackets to match up with shirts and ties in various color groups.

From one basic jacket and two pairs of pants, a man can assemble several different outfits using shirts and ties in coordinating colors.

Rust tones, greens, yellows and beige tones are created to compliment various shades of browns. Blues are designed to compliment each other.
